As an HR leader, mentor, and consultant, I have supported both individuals and organizations. My expertise as a coach is in guiding leaders and individuals to recognize and conquer challenges that may be impeding their optimal performance, allowing them to achieve their highest potential.

Extensive qualifications

Over the course of my professional journey, I have leveraged my expertise in many essential disciplines, ranging from leadership development, talent management, performance management and employee relations. I have coached leaders, mentored a diverse group of employees, designed training programs, and developed resource tools.

Transforming people and workplaces

Throughout my career, I have focused on facilitating cultural change in organizations by implementing "people-first" initiatives through establishing accountability, reviewing policy, promoting diversity, and embracing cultural differences.

Strategies that drive advancement

My clients trust me to guide them through significant career transitions, personal development, and leadership growth. By utilizing the FLOW methodology, 5 points of coaching, and active listening skills, I facilitate exploration of possibilities that extend beyond my clients' current level of thinking, fostering new perspectives that expand their worldview. Employing a holistic coaching approach, I empower my clients to enhance their autonomy and resilience.

Experience Includes:

- Public & Private Organizations
- Fortune 500
- Start Up
- Organizations: Right Management, Under Armour, Stanley Black & Decker
- Industries: Manufacturing, Apparel & Retail, Talent Management

Education

I obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business and Management from Notre Dame of Maryland University. I have successfully earned my Associate Coaching Certification (ACC) from the International Coaching Federation (ICF) as well as being a Flow Certified Professional Coach (FCPC) from the Flow Coaching Institute.
